

A step function plot with four steps. The first step is the tallest and widest, followed by a shorter step, then a medium-height step, and finally a very short step. The x-axis is a horizontal line, and the y-axis is represented by the vertical steps.

